

Gina Lorenzen

Gina Lorenzen

(*1997 in Saarburg, Germany) works as an actress and performer in Switzerland and Germany.

She grew up in Kuala Lumpur, Singapore and in Stade. Therefore English and German are both her mother tongue. After her graduation in 2015, she traveled back to South East Asia and did an internship as a stage managing assistant at the Performing Arts Center in Kuala Lumpur.

2020 she completed her Bachelor of Arts in theatre at the Hochschule der Künste Bern (HKB). Gina was part of the HKB acting studio at the Konzert Theater Bern in 2019/2020.

She was seen in Charlie Chaplin's «the great dictator» directed by Cihan Inan, «FIFA - Glaube, Liebe Korruption» by Christoph Frick and «Meisterin Hüpf» by Fabienne Bieber.

In 2021 she continued to work there and acted in Sartre's «Die Schmutzigen Hände» directed by Sophia Aurich. In 2022 her work as an actress continued in Zürich at the Theater Neumarkt in «Gretel und Hänsel» directed by Annina Machaz and Nils Amadeus Lange.

Furthermore, Gina is a performer in the contemporary movement girl band «The Yonis» since 2021.

She currently lives in Goslar.
